

DOCUMENTATION TO PROVE A PERSON IS CAYMANIAN

FOR PERSONS BORN IN THE CAYMAN ISLANDS PRIOR TO 27 MARCH 1977

- A certified copy of birth certificate; OR
- a certified copy of photographic passport page; OR
- a certified copy of an Electors Registration Card.

FOR PERSONS BORN IN THE CAYMAN ISLANDS ON OR AFTER 27 MARCH 1977

- A certified copy of an Electors Registration Card;

OR

- A certified copy of a Cayman birth certificate OR a certified copy of photographic passport page; AND
- Evidence that one parent was Caymanian at the time of the person's birth (again in the form of a certified copy of parent's birth certificate, photographic passport page, or certificate of Caymanian Status).

There are some persons born on or after 27 March 1977 who may have a letter issued by the Immigration Department confirming that they possess Caymanian Status, and a certified copy of this is sufficient evidence on its own.

ALL OTHER PERSONS

- A certified copy of an Electors Registration Card; OR
 - A certified copy of a certificate or letter confirming Caymanian Status; OR
- A certified copy of photographic passport page; AND a certified copy of the passport page where confirmation of Caymanian Status has been stamped. Certification of the Status stamp page should confirm that the page is from the passport of the named person (with the name being stated).
